Black Box by Amos Oz, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

The complete review's Review: . Black Box is an epistolary novel, consisting almost entirely of the letters (and telegrams) several family members (and their lawyers) send each other over the course of 1976. Set in pre-e-mail times, and with telephone connections unavailable, undependable, or undesirable, the letter is the preferred means of communication here.

Black Box - Amos Oz - Complete Review

Black Box is a 1986 epistolary novel by Amos Oz. The novel's title refers to the black boxes carried by airplanes; these hardy devices record details about the plane that, in the case of a wreck, are later used to piece together the cause of the crash.

Amos Oz, one of Israel's foremost novelists, brought up in the land of Moses and Moshe Dayan, would have no reason to fulfill these comfortable expectations we have for novels. His voice is rich, passionate, committed, febrile, intellectual. In the epistolary novel "Black Box," he extends his impressive range.
